

Saints and Sainthood around the Baltic Sea

Identity, Literacy, and Communication in the Middle Ages

edited by Carsten Selch Jensen and Tracey Sands

DESCRIPTION:

This volume addresses the history of saints and sainthood in the Middle Ages in the Baltic Region, with a special focus on the cult of saints in Russia, Prussia, Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Estonia, and Latvia (Livonia). Essays explore such topics as the introduction of foreign (andold) saints into new regions, the creation of new local cults of saints in newly Christianized regions, the role of the cult of saints in the creation of political and lay identities, and the potential role of saints in times of war.
