

Maiores Philologiae Pontes

Festschrift für Michael Meier-Brügger zum 70. Geburtstag.

edited by Matthias Fritz, Tomoki Kitazumi and Marina Veksina

DESCRIPTION:

Prof. Michael Meier-Brügger's distinguished and productive career in Greek and Indo-European historical linguistics finds fitting tribute in this volume. Over two dozen prominent scholars celebrate the honoree's oeuvre by offering original studies primarily in Greek and Anatolian, but hardly confined to those areas. Spanning such topics as the Homeric question, newly discovered Indic names in Hittite sources, Medieval and Modern Greek phonology, discourse markers, Old Irish words for 'star', and the Caland system, Maiores philologiae pontes contributes significantly and illuminatingly to many central questions of the field today..
