

Excavations at Carthage 1925

A Preliminary Report

by Francis W. Kelsey

DESCRIPTION:

A recently-rediscovered stock of Francis W. Kelsey's 1926 preliminary report on the University of Michigan's first season of excavations at Carthage, the important Punic and later Roman settlement near the modern city of Tunis. This brief volume gives a narrative account of the excavations of the Punic remains in the Precinct of Tanit at the site. Note: this book has uncut pages as originally issued.
